CIPEG Annual Meeting

Milano, 4 – 7 July 2016

“EGYPTOLOGICAL LANDSCAPES: MUSEUMS, LIBRARIES, HISTORICAL PALACES AND ARCHIVES”

Every three years the International Museums' community meets at the ICOM General Conference to discuss cultural issues and museum related questions on a large scale. The official topic for the 24th ICOM General Conference in Milano is “Museums and Cultural Landscapes: Building up a Cultural Heritage”. CIPEG is happy to participate in this international forum and to have the opportunity to meet museum professionals from all various fields on this occasion.

For the official program of the ICOM General conference check the Programme Highlights website:
<http://network.icom.museum/icom-milan-2016/programme/programme-highlights/>

As part of the General Conference CIPEG will have its Annual Meeting from 4 – 7 July 2016 and herewith invites papers related to the theme Egyptological Landscapes: Museums, Libraries, historical Palaces and Archives. As is the CIPEG tradition, there is also an Open Forum for papers related to general museum work.

During its Annual Meeting, CIPEG will take the opportunity to visit institutions related to the field of Egyptology in Milano and its environs. We very much look forward to meeting our colleagues in Milano and to explore a selection of the 'Egyptological Landscape' of Italy:

- The Egyptian Collection of the Civic Archaeological Museum in Milan
- The Archives and Library of the Università degli Studi in Milan
- Museo Egizio, Turin

Post-conference Workshop

Bologna, Civic Archaeological Museum

10 – 12 July 2016

“EGYPTOLOGICAL LANDSCAPES: MUSEUMS RESOURCES AND NETWORKS BETWEEN COLLECTIONS AND INSTITUTIONS”

Under the auspices of a recent cultural network that is benefiting from the involvement of the main Italian Egyptian collections, with which the Civic Archaeological Museum in Bologna has stipulated specific agreements, this workshop will provide an excellent opportunity to enlarge the discussion to other international relationships. Attention will be focused on resources, strategies, finalities at the basis of networks between collections and institutions and on future Egyptological landscapes.

If you wish to present a paper, please send the title and an abstract (in English) of no more than 300 words to the board member Daniela Picchi, daniela.picchi@comune.bologna.it with a cc. to the chair Gabriele Pieke: g.pieke@gmail.com.

The deadline for receiving abstracts is 30 May 2016!
